FOREWORD

Between these covers are the days of a school
year . . .

Classes . . . clubs . . . teams . . .
assemblies . . . dances . . .

Groups . . . more groups . . .
all 650 in big groups,
little groups . . .

But groups have individuals.
Each one has his own identity.

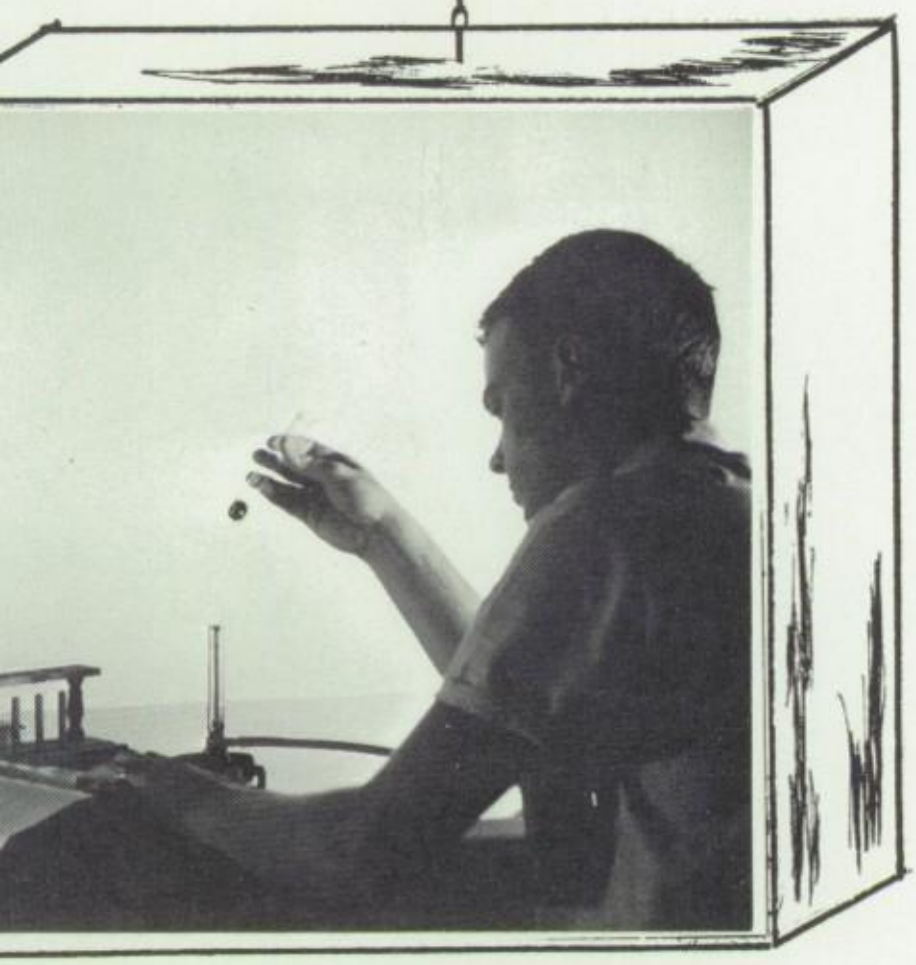
Each asks his own questions . . .
not the questions of
the group.



Each finds his own answers . . .
in the laboratory . . . in books . . . in his private meditations.

So, in this age of group
conformity, let us look
at the groups in this book, remembering that
each face is a person,
unique . . . never another
quite like him.

And let us thank our Creator
for that uniqueness and
guard it as precious.

NATIONAL MERIT TEST
FINALISTS

Three senior students became finalists in the National Merit Testing Program this year. They are the first in the history of WHS to achieve this honor.
These three students are Sandra Donovan, Brian Butner, and James Golz.

MOCK ELECTION

One of the high points of this year was the U.S. Presidential Election. The students of WHS held their own election. Preceding our election day, debates were held by Jim Golz, supporting Barry Goldwater, and Joyce Olson, supporting Lyndon Johnson.

"Peaches" Our AFS Student

We were fortunate this year to have as our exchange student Marianna Joenson from the Faroe Islands, a Danish possession north of Scotland. Her home is Thorshavn, the capital city of the Islands.

Marianna attended boarding school in Denmark for four years before coming here. She speaks Faroish, Danish, and English fluently. Her Waupun parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haese.

FACULTY

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Carolyn Maastricht, Irmgard Derivan, (Supt. Kujath), Don Thomas, Dr. L. W. Schrank, A. H. Verner, Robert Bleifnick, Barrie Tenpas.

Our Administration

The board of education is the main governing body of our school district. We owe much to these civic-minded citizens. The board approves personnel appointments made by the superintendent and annually submits a budget to the electors. The board then appropriates needed funds from this budget.

Superintendent Howard Kujath is the professional advisor to the board and coordinator between the board and the faculty. He is presently in his nineteenth year as district administrator.

Superintendent
Howard Kujath

Mr. Anderson, Mr. Pfefferkorn, Mr. Runholm.

With 19 years in his present capacity as principal and a total of 36 years in the Waupun system, Mr. Pfefferkorn has been at WHS longer than anyone else on the staff.

Above, he checks records with guidance men Eugene Runholm and Ronald Anderson. The former has been at WHS the past four years. Mr. Anderson, who came to us this year, also directs our chorus.

Our office staff: Beverly Landaal, Marilyn Van Loo, Vyrna Lawrence, and Ruth Radel.

The Senior Band is composed of 101 members under the direction of Mr. Hansen. In addition to its annual Mid-Winter and Spring Concerts and participation in most of the Homecoming activities, it provided special entertainment for the Farm Progress Days in Beaver Dam. Special highlight of the year was the participation in the Music Clinic in Fond du Lac on November 14. Most of the members took part in the Solo-Ensemble Contest held on March 27. The Music Festival, in which the band entered in Class A Concert, Sightreading, and Marching, was held on May 8. Officers are Dave Glascoff, president; Dave Radcliffe, vice-president; Linda Hendricks, secretary-treasurer.

Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Anderson, numbered 45 the first semester. They took part in the community Christmas concert and gave a concert for our Christmas assembly. Mr. Anderson anticipated an even larger group second semester. Members planned to enter the several music contests.

Accompanists: Patsy West, Ellen Stoehr. Director: Mr. Anderson.

F.H.A.

The Future Homemakers of America, under the leadership of Miss Fowler, is composed of girls who either have been or are now in the home economics program. The members joined in many activities throughout the course of the year. Among these were a swimming party, participation in Farm Progress Days, and a float in the Homecoming Parade. Officers for this year were Jean Kant, president; Georgiann Krueger, vice president; Lou Ann Kubehl, secretary; Judy Derksen, treasurer; Pat Kelln, historian.

Farm Progress Days

F.F.A.

Seventy-one members joined the Future Farmers of America this year under the leadership of Mr. Swan. Among the many activities during the course of the year were participation in Farm Progress Days, a hot dog stand for all home football games, and the school farm. It again joined with the FHA to enter a float in the Homecoming Parade. Officers were Jack Casey, president; Ron Vick, vice president; Reuben Hopp, secretary; Allen Lidtke, treasurer; Dennis Vellema, reporter; Calvin Vande Kolk, Sentinel.

Farm Progress Days

The AFS was formed to help raise money to bring foreign students to our school. It is the organization's responsibility to see to it that these students have an enjoyable stay at Waupun. Throughout the year the group sponsors various activities, including the Sadie Hawkins Dance, to raise this money. Last June, Waupun was host to 28 AFS students who had spent the year in Wisconsin high schools. After a three-day stay, they took a three-week trip through the Northeastern states. The picture at the bottom shows these students before they leave for their tour.

American Field Service

G.A.A.

Good sportsmanship is a desirable quality which the Girl's Athletic Association tries to develop in each of its members. Throughout the year, the girls participate in volleyball, basketball, bowling, and various other athletic activities. This year's officers were Sue Meekma, president; Linda Hendricks, vice-president; Kathy Welk, secretary-treasurer.

The 25 members of the Library Club were responsible for many of the routine duties in the high school library. Among the activities of this group were the Annual Signing Party, a Faculty Tea on December 16, and a Christmas Party held on December 22. Officers were Sandra Donovan, president; Bonnie Hoinacki, vice president; Joan Schmidt, secretary; Kathy Graf, treasurer.

Service Club

This year more than 60 students provided their "services" to our school. Under Mr. Gadbaw, faculty advisor, the Service Club sold and took tickets at school events, and ushered for various public events throughout the year.

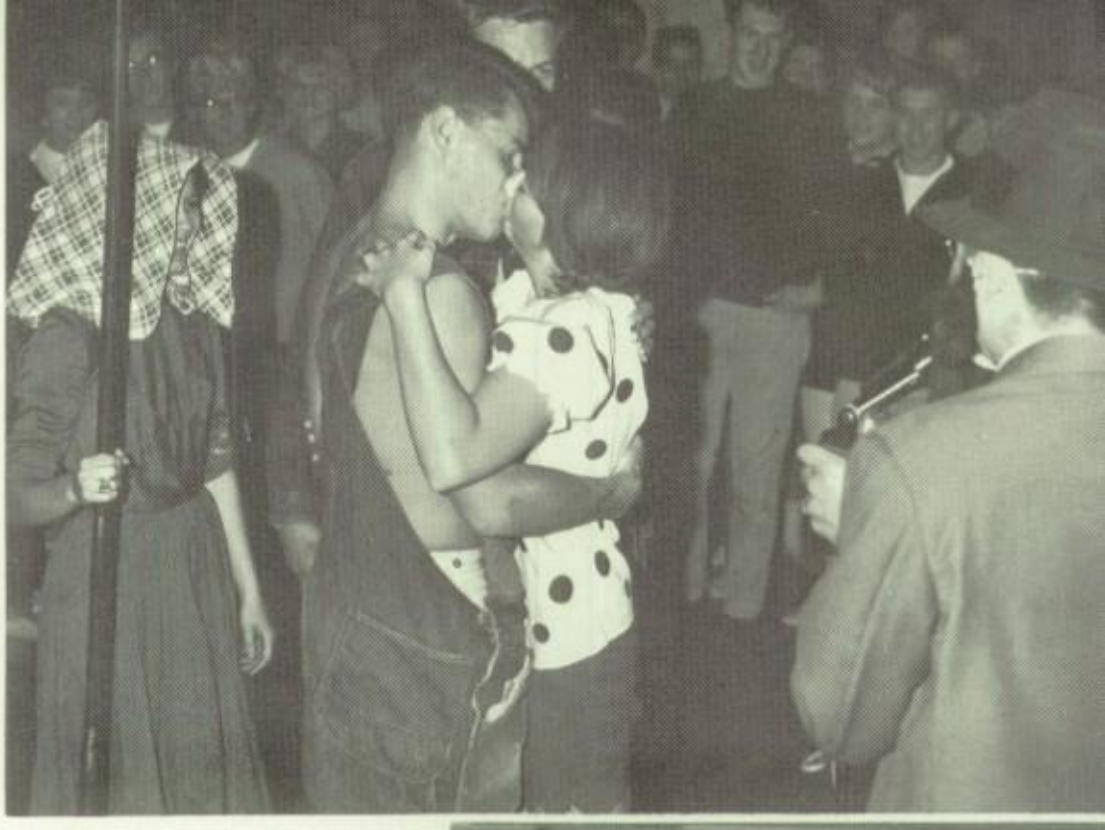
Homecoming '64 started off with a bang! The Juniors' skit "Fractured Fairy Tale" took first place, but the bonfire was ignited with caution because of a dynamite scare. The senior float featuring the End of the Trail received honors in the Homecoming parade. A hard-fought game with Columbus ended in a 13-13 tie. The crowning of royalty at the dance following the game added a perfect climax to WHS Homecoming 1964.



Friday the 13 didn't keep many gals from dragging their favorite guys to the Sadie Hawkins Sock Hop sponsored by the A.F.S. Daisy Mae (Vicki Mews) struggled to catch Lil' Abner (Randy Dykstra) so that Marrin' Sam (Russ Kamphuis) could tie the knot. With the help of Mammy and Pappy Yokum (Ranee Fletcher and Tim Meekma), Daisy Mae finally got Lil' Abner settled down.

Extra-Curricular Bands

The music of the Pep Band floats through the gym to help build school spirit at pep assemblies. The popular and lively tunes encourage WHS students to support the Warriors on to victory.

STAGE BAND (below)

This group is devoted to the personal enjoyment of music and to the growth of their musical skills. They have thus far had few opportunities to play for the public.

The '65 Waubun Staff

The section editors acted as an editorial board on such matters as cover and organization of the book. Mari Bertsch designed the cover and division pages which give the book its individuality. And each editor was responsible for his or her own section from there on.

Our junior staffers, Kay and Bev, identified more than 400 junior and sophomore pictures taken in September and pasted them on large sheets to be reduced by a photographic process so that they appear as they do in the book.

Jim Golz and Edie Rens assisted staff photographer Mr. Goff in many ways. Jim took a number of the action shots in the book. Both developed film, filled film holders, and did other darkroom chores.

This is the group who sold sponsorships so that we could sell our book for the modest price that was charged. Alan Beske planned their routes and is shown below checking in some of the results.

Student Council

Sue Maastricht, secretary-treasurer; Curt Powell, president; Greg Lueck, vice president.

Student Council is the organization which gives students an active voice in matters concerning student welfare and activities on campus. As a link between the student body, the faculty, and the administration, this organization offers and receives suggestions for the progress of all.

Jim Golz, president; Dave Radcliffe, vice president; Joyce Olson, secretary; Joan Guelig, treasurer.

National Honor Society

Members serve their school as hall monitors.
